

ST RICHARD REYNOLDS CATHOLIC COLLEGE

SIXTH FORM LEARNER AGREEMENT

The Sixth Form Learner Agreement serves as a valuable reminder to you, your parents and SRRCC of our individual and joint responsibilities in your education. We know that if you are able to fulfil the requirements of the Learner Agreement, you are more likely to be successful in your studies which is ultimately what we're all here for. The knowledge you acquire, the skills you develop and the responsibilities you fulfil in the Sixth Form form a strong basis for future studies, the world of work and adult life. We hope you enjoy your time in the Sixth Form.

Student – I will:

- support the Catholic identity and mission of the College
- attend all form times, lessons, assemblies, masses, liturgies, enrichment, General RE, study periods (at least 6 per week) and all organised Sixth Form events
- arrive on time for College and for lessons and have all of the necessary equipment (if I am late for a lesson or not properly prepared I know that I may be sent away and will have to make up the time in a Call Back)
- inform the College promptly of any unavoidable absence
- produce high quality work, meeting agreed work deadlines and using study time productively
- keep term time employment and leisure activities to a level which comfortably allows you to spend 5 hours per week per subject on homework/private study in addition to timetabled lessons
- abide by the Sixth Form Dress Code
- be respectful of the Sixth Form Study Room
- be respectful of other students (Reception to Year 13), members of staff, visitors, the College property and myself
- support the College expectations, rules and policies
- be actively involved in the College community (such as voluntary/College service, peer mentoring, paired reading, student subject leaders) acting as a positive role model for the younger students
- try my best at all times and ensure that I ask for help when I need it
- not plagiarise my work
- recognise the fact that I will need to learn about, reflect upon and practise the skills I will need to become a strong A level student
- be respectful of the rights of local residents and the wider community by behaving calmly and respectfully in the surrounding areas, being mindful that I still represent the College when I am leave the site
- not leave the College site during the College day without signing out and only with permission*
- undertake a week of valuable work experience in the summer of Year 12 during work experience week
- not use the College name when booking social events

*an exit pass (permission to leave the College site during study periods) is an earned privilege and will only be available to you if your attendance and punctuality are excellent, behaviour is exemplary, work deadlines are consistently met and progress is on track. This privilege may be revoked at any time.

Parents/Guardians – I/we will:

- provide quiet time and space for work
- keep in contact with College concerning my son/daughter’s progress
- discuss with my son/daughter their work in College, providing support as necessary and appropriate
- join in celebrating the successes of my child and the rest of the students at St Richard Reynolds Catholic College
- support the College in achieving high standards of courtesy and consideration for others
- support the College expectations, rules and policies
- support the College with regard to its policies on dress code, registration and attendance to lessons
- not take family holidays during term time or make requests for absence unless there are exceptional circumstances
- encourage personal responsibility and learning independence – recognising that students must learn this
- ensure, where appropriate, that my son/daughter limits the number of hours used for part-time employment and/or leisure activities
- encourage my son/daughter to engage with the extra-curricular and enrichment opportunities provided, thus contributing to the life of the College as a whole
- act on the advice given by staff regarding the most suitable courses for my child to study
- support the Catholic community, the Governors and the Parents’ Association in their responsibilities for maintaining the College buildings in good repair

College – We will:

- deliver high quality lessons by specialist staff who are committed to helping students succeed
- provide opportunities for Catholic worship, prayer and reflection
- provide students with pastoral support and guidance through a tutor time programme and a personal form tutor who will monitor and discuss students’ academic and personal progress in the Sixth Form
- provide appropriate opportunities for students to develop their knowledge and skills to fulfil their academic potential
- provide information support and guidance about post-18 options including UCAS, apprenticeships, employment etc.
- inform students and parents of their progress through Parents’ Consultation Evenings, monitoring and individual meetings
- provide enrichment opportunities for Year 12 students
- provide opportunities for listening and responding appropriately to the ‘student voice’
- provide support and guidance in relation to progression beyond the Sixth Form into higher education, work-based training or employment
- provide a comfortable, well-resourced learning environment in which to study

I /we have read the St Richard Reynolds Catholic College Sixth Form Learner Agreement. I/we note and understand the aims and values it has as a Catholic College and the educational opportunities it will provide for my child within a Christian context. I/we acknowledge the type of support outlined in the statements set out above. I/we acknowledge what the College expects from all student as set out above.
