Parent/Carer Permissions

PHOTOGRAPHS OF STUDENTS

On entry to the College, the College photographer will take photographs of your child to be included for identification purposes only on the College database. You will be invited to purchase copies of these photographs if you so wish.

There may be other occasions during the time your child attends the College when photographs are taken of your child. These photographs will be for College-related purposes, such as the College website or newsletters. The College gives an assurance that such photographs will be used for 'bona fide' educational publicity purposes.

I understand that photographs of my child may be taken during his/her time at the College and may be used only for educational publicity purposes.
